Next residents' council meeting

Tuesday, October 1st, 2013 at 19:00 in the GH-basement

Mold! The pest that everyone is so afraid of. Several rooms raised awareness at the last residents' council meeting that they had been exposed to the mold in their rooms. As a response to this, the council urged all residents to speak to their representatives regarding their own situations, so we can get a better picture of the problem's severity. Read more on page 2

Operation kitchen renovation has now been going on for several years, and now, we are nearing the end. If your kitchen has not yet been renovated, or if you are just curious about what the old kitchens looked like, take a look inside to find dates and pictures. Page 2

KælderCafeen is closing down temporarily because of a floor renovation. The bar expects to open again on October 25th. They would also like to let you know that they need more bartenders to help out. Read more about it all inside. Page 4

As a new editor at NybroTidende, Emma has chosen to focus on culture and events around the dormitory. This month you can read about Culture Night—one of Copenhagen's biggest cultural events is being held on October 11th. Page 7

Mold in your room?

At the residents' council meeting in September, the conversation once again touched on the subject of mold at the dormitory. This time, the ST-block were telling the rest of the dormitory about their problems.

Mold is not exactly news at the dormitory. We are placed in a moist environment, close to the lakes, and the old buildings are far from optimal with regards to the indoor climate. The dormitory has gone through a number of renovations throughout the years and one of these included the installation of new, tight fitting windows. Since these windows were installed, a lot of energy has been saved on heating, but the problem with mold has risen significantly.

At the latest residents' council meeting, residents were urged to go home and talk to their respective hallways and apartments about whether or not they experience problems with mold. This is all to form a better picture of how big of a problem we are dealing with. If you believe you have any kind of mold in your room, please speak with your representative about it, so we can gain a better view of the problem.

What if there is mold?

Often when we yell mold, we are actually just dealing with mildew—which of course also has a negative effect on the indoor climate, but is not as damaging as mold. If a mold occurrence is to be considered of such a degree that it is dangerous and needs to be treated, it should cover an area of around 3 square meters. Smaller areas should not be neglected, however. According to your lease contract, it is your duty as a tenant to inform your landlord of an occurrence of mold when you notice it. You should speak to Lars Kaj who can help you through the ensuing process, which typically calls for a treatment of Rodalon or a similar product.

In order to avoid mold, it is important that you do not let your room become too cold. It is also important that you ventilate the room thoroughly. If possible, you should ventilate 3 times daily!

Remaining kitchens to be renovated before 2014

At last, NybroTidende can bring the news that the kitchen renovations ARE on their way to EVERYONE!

Many have probably already forgot what the old kitchens looked like. Soon everyone will have that luxury. Before 2014, everyone will have white cupboards and plastered walls.

Around 3 years ago, the kitchen renovation at Nybrogård began. Through the years, more and more kitchens have had their yellow bricks replaced by white walls, received new cupboards, etc. But not all of them yet. It is therefore with pleasure we announce that before 2014, all kitchens at Nybrogård will have received the 'new' look.

Time table for the renovation:

O-odd Week 41-42
O-even Week 41-42

S-odd Week 43-44

S-even Week 43-44

T-odd Week 45-46

T-even Week 45-46

R-odd Week 47-48

R-even Week 47-48

From the time table, it is evident that it takes 2 weeks to renovate one kitchen. This entails tearing the kitchen down, pulling the vinyl off the floor, spackeling and plastering the walls, installing linoleum, painting the walls, installing kitchen and tile and painting and installing the last cupboards.

4) Approval of agenda

5) Economy

-Election of a new treasurer. A new treasurer is needed for the NYK and network accounts. The current treasurer is leaving because of long term illness. The job is paid and set to around 4-5 hours per month. The job entails taking care of salary payments, withdrawal of money for NYK's clubs, the yearly financial report and obligatory participation in the residents' council meetings. Alexander L-17 chosen unanimously

6) Announcements

Solar panels

New person is needed to be responsible for this because of lack of free time—no one is chosen.

7) Review of the minutes of the last board meeting or agenda for the next one. No meeting is applicable.

8) Inward correspondence

a) New chairmen for the Exercise Room

The former chairman has moved from the dormitory during the summer vacation and two new chairmen have been pointed out as candidates for the position. Alexander Frederik-Bagge L17 and Alexander G28 – The proposal is to appoint both to the position. No objections—chosen unanimously.

It is noted that the member fee problem is looked into, since many do not pay. Deadlines and consequences are an option.

b) New chairman for the Cinema Club

A new chairman is needed for the Cinema Club, since the current chairman is leaving the dormitory. Jonas Høj, G24 is volunteering for the position – other interested residents are also welcome. Because Jonas is not present, he can not be elected—no one is chosen—the chairman will look into this.

c) New residents' council chairman

Since the current chairman is leaving the dormitory, a new is needed to fill the position. The job entails keeping an overview of the residents' council 'stasks and follow up on these, as well as making urgent decisions on behalf of the residents' council. The new chairman must be found within the representatives of the council. The job is for 1-1,5 hours per month.

Thomas, C5 is chosen unanimously.

d) Goalkeeper's gloves for FC Nybro Chicks – see appendix 1.

No objections. It is approved.

e) New equipment for FC Nybro – see appendix 2. A total of DKK

f) New hands are needed for Green Dormitory.

One of the two responsible is leaving the position, and one or more are needed to take over. A union with the Environmental Group is proposed. The responsibility goes to Troels—unanimously chosen.

g) New chairman for the bicycle workshop

Since the former chairman no longer lives at the dormitory, a new is needed.

Kristoffer L10 unanimously chosen.

9) Inauguration of new council members and alternates, including information of council members leaving the residents' council

Thomas is chosen for CDG. Emine is alternate.

Nina C23 is leaving as alternate and Jonas leaves as representative for CD-odd. Ea is the new representative.

Troels changes from EF-even to CD-even.

10) Other

- Board member in KælderCaféen

The chairman will appoint a temporary board member to KælderCaféen. The member will function as intermediary between the café and the residents' council.

Ea is chosen for the position. This will be approved at the next meeting.

-Mold in ST-odd

There have been complaints about mold in the rooms in ST-odd. As tenant, you are obligated to report this problem to the landlord, and then the operations department will take care of it. The board will decide whether mechanical ventilation is a possibility. This requires that we are dealing with a real problem and it will be discussed at the next meeting.

The representatives will discuss the problem with their hallways.

- KælderCaféen has stopped letting residents borrow the café. There are not enough bartenders for these events. A proposal is made to lock down the bar area and remove the need for personnel—the renter must be responsible for cleaning up. It is noted that such a decision should be discussed in the residents' council before being made. This will be added as an item for the next meeting. Thomas will e-mail the details of this decision.

11) Date for next meeting
The meeting is set for October 1st,

2013 in the GH-basement

Any cancellations must be submitted at www.nybro.dk > Residents' Council > Cancel at least one day before the meeting.

Temporarily closing the bar!

The dormitory's Friday bar, KælderCaféen is closing down from the end of September until October 25th. This is due to an outstanding floor renovation, which after being installed will have to settle and temper. The new surface of the floor will be made of epoxy which has a reputation for being both durable and long lasting.

As mentioned, the first opening will be October 25th, where work is being done to make something big out of it. If this does not make it on the schedule for the re-opening night, it will definitely happen in the month after.

Municipal election in Gladsaxe

In November, Gladsaxe city council and the regional council for the capital region are having elections. 25 members will be elected for the city council and 41 members will be elected for the regional council.

You are probably thinking ‘why do I need to know that? Do I even want to read this article—it is an article on local politics? It does not matter whether I vote or not. And is it not enough that I vote at the parliament election?’

Thomas Monberg is running for the city council as a representative of the Socialist People’s Party (SF), and we have asked him some of the same questions.

Why should we even vote?

Because the number of young voters is extremely low. It is actually a little embarrassing. At the election in 2009, less than half of the young people between 19 and 21 in Copenhagen voted. And even more importantly; because what is happening in the municipality affects us young people. The problem with unemployment of young people is solved in the municipalities, the busses that bring you to and from school, including the bus to DTU, the rights of the rowers on Bagsværd lake, cultural activities and exciting projects that newly educated engineers can participate in is all decided in the municipality.

Have you ever gotten a proposal through?

Yes! A venue for young people is one of me and my party’s biggest victories. We have received DKK 30 million to establish it, and I really think it can turn Gladsaxe’s cultural potential up a notch.

We have fought long and hard to establish an eco-lane from Lundtofte to Ishøj, which will benefit many DTU students. I am very active environmentally and also contributed to raising the goal for CO2 emissions from 25% to 40% by 2020 because I demanded a quick revision of the plan.

Why are you even running?

I am running to ensure that the city council continues working with as much possible solidarity and sustainability in mind. Primarily older people are members of the various councils, so it is also important to maintain a certain degree of age difference, so all generations are heard. I think it is very exciting to work with these issues. I have always had a natural interest in society and local community especially. This goes over well with my education where I study politics, administration and geography.

Why should we vote for your party?

Because a strong Socialist People’s Party is needed to ensure that the municipality continues to focus on the best possible service for its citizens. To make sure we do not outsource to private companies whose top priority is profit. And to ensure that the environmental agenda is not forgotten again. It was nonexistent 4 years ago and the Socialist People’s Party has a very big interest in keeping our municipality in the front seat, where we are now. The Socialist People’s Party is a stable partner who is willing to compromise when it makes sense to do so. This is where we differ somewhat from our friends in the Red-Green Alliance (Enhedslisten).

I can understand if people are dissatisfied with the Socialist People’s Party’s work on a national level, but that is not connected with our efforts locally, where we have fought and won many victories.

So, remember the municipal election on November 19th, where you can also be a part of changing the future for both yourselves and others!

Culture Night in Copenhagen

The Culture Night event is held every year in October. This is Copenhagen's biggest yearly event where more than 250 museums, theaters, libraries, churches, ministries, parks and squares across the city invite the participants in. All you need is a single admission ticket called Kulturpas.

In central Copenhagen including Valby, Frederiksberg, Østerbro, Vesterbro, Nørrebro, Islands Brygge, Amagerbro and Christianshavn, it will be possible to enjoy the city's many opportunities with a single admission ticket and there will be a wide array of special events. Rundetårn, Sømods Bolcher, Folketinget and Den Kongelige Livgarde are just some of the places the Culture Night can take you.

Price

The admission ticket 'Kulturpas' costs DKK 90 and you can purchase it in 7-eleven at most S-train stations, libraries and cultural institutions in Copenhagen and Frederiksberg. The ticket sale starts on September 30th, 2013.

Copenhagen from the water

Again this year, the Kulturpas will also give you access to jump on the city's boat service. The boat service runs planned routes from 18:00. Five covered boats sail in a ring from 18:00 to 22:00 and three boats from 22:00 to 24:00 and they stop at Gammel Strand, DAC, Nyhavn/

Oktober 11th

Cake Festival—Fall 2013

Nybrogård's most delicious festival will be held on November 9th, from 14:00 to 17:00.

Cake Festival!

The concept: bring a cake and eat all you can. Enjoy yourselves without beer.

Once again, the Cake Committee invites you to join the Cake Festival at Nybrogård Kollegiet!

The concept is that you, and a possible cake-buddy, bake a delicious cake on the 9th of November. If you do not have time to bake, you can also just bring DKK 20 and enjoy the other participants' cakes.

You can actually win

There will be a participant driven vote to pick the winners of 3 categories: Marilyn Monroe (most beautiful), Mother Cake (so delicious your mother must have baked it) and the Creative Cake.

More info

MUCH more info regarding the place, registration, etc. Will be printed in next month's edition of NybroTidende. You can also find it on the Cake Festival's facebook page: Nybrogård Kollegiets Kagefestival..

Notice of residents' council meeting

October 1st, 2013 at 19:00 in the GH-basement

Agenda:

A) ST is having trouble with noise from the day care. The day care uses the area outside the windows of the ST block and this is an inconvenience for the residents. What is the arrangement with the day care? Can it be changed? Many people use the path along the kitchen. The possibility of putting up a sign noting that the path is private should be explored, because guests look in windows and walk their dogs without leash etc.

B) The Canoe Club is applying for DKK 6,700 for repairs and maintenance. Application for DKK 6,700 to repair the two red kayaks and new paddles since a number of them have been broken due to them being mis-used.

C) The Canoe Club is applying for DKK 10,000 to deepen the area around the jetty. With a new jetty, we are closer to making sure that the canoers and kayakers can use the equipment without it getting damaged from regular use. But there is a problem with the water depth around the bridge. DKK 10,000 is needed to deepen the area. 0,5-1 meter will be removed over a length of 5 meters on either side of the jetty.

D) The Cake Festival is applying for DKK 309 to cover expenses.

The Cake Festival will be held again this fall and the committee is applying for the expenses to be covered. See appendix 1.

E) Application for money to deepen the area around the jetty.

F) New chairman for the Cinema Club. A new chairman for the Cinema Club is needed since the previous chairman is moving from the dormitory. Jonas Høj is volunteering—others interested are welcome.

G) Board member in KælderCaféen. At the last meeting, the chairman appointed a temporary board member to KælderCaféen. The member must now be officially inaugurated or a new member chosen.

H) Mold in ST-odd. There have been complaints of mold in the rooms in ST-odd. The representatives give feedback on the severity of the problem as decided at the last meeting.

I) KælderCaféen stopped letting residents borrow the facilities—without involving the residents' council. KælderCaféen's management board has stopped letting residents borrow the facilities. There are not enough bartenders to attend these events. A proposal is made to lock down the bar area and remove the need for personnel—the renter must be responsible for cleaning up. New winds blow on F.C. Nybro

A month ago, we reported that the football teams had finally started the season after a long summer break. Now we can tell you that the fall season is almost over. Because of the summer break's skewed placement in the calendar, the fall season is always much shorter than the spring season, since the evening sun is already starting to disappear.

In the past month, both teams have played two matches each, while the men have 3 matches to go and the ladies have 2.

The men's team's first match was against Egmont, the league's runner up, who usually play in the top part of the league each year. That is also the case this year, but against all odds, Nybro was very much in the game until the last ten minutes of the match. After an unlucky goal early in the game, the opponents were kept in check for a long time. Shortly before the break, however, Egmont scored again to 0-2.

The men set off the second half much better, and already in the first two minutes, two good attempts were made at goal—one of them even hit the post. The chock was evident in the Egmont team, who no longer created the same flow up the pitch. Nybrogård would later close the gap between them, when Marius alone against the keeper made it 1-2 with 20 minutes to go. After this, however, disaster struck. A yellow card and a tired crew could not keep up in the end, which gave Egmont 3 easy goals, towards the final result of 1-5.

The men's second match was cancelled a few days before it was supposed to take place because it would not be possible for the team to assemble on the given day.

The ladies have done a little better than the men, although they did have a rough start. Away against Nordic, they hoped to bring home a point after the 4-4 result earlier in the season. However, the opponents were simply too good on the day and a player for the opposing team even managed to jest the guests. All in all the result was a beating of 0-8, which, however, does not fairly represent the plays and chances created throughout the match.

Also the ladies second match was cancelled—however, this was due to the opposing team not being able to assemble their team on the day of the match. That gave the ladies 3 points, which was enough to put them in 3rd place—next to RJK in second.

The big talk between the teams, however, has not been the poor results. The managers for both teams, Gabriel B-62 and Jennie L-14 have both announced that they are leaving their duties as managers after this season. That leaves the question of who will become leader of the teams in the coming season open. No one has volunteered for either team yet. The men are looking at a group-manager option where several players share the responsibility as manager, since no single person has been willing to do it alone.

Both teams could use more players from the dormitory since they have both experienced using players from outside to be able to assemble their teams. This is such a big problem with the ladies that they are considering creating a merged team with POP, who are experiencing the same problem with their ladies' team. Since practice and matches are organized in the same locations for both dormitories, the process of coordinating schedules would be the least of their worries.

NybroTidende food column:

Enjoy the food!

This month:

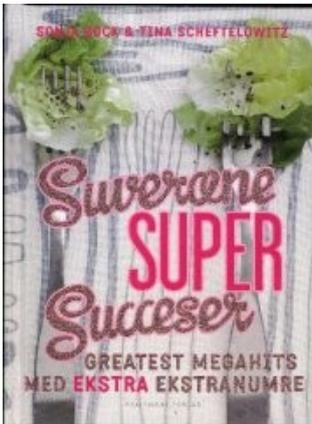

Beet and garlic soup

I can not help myself from returning to the inspiration from last month's column. I have found another recipe from the fantastic cook book I bought during the summer break. I keep finding great recipes in this book, and this one is an option that provides a delicious, inexpensive and seasonal dinner.

The recipe is for beet and garlic soup. Many of you might furrow your brow and be discouraged by the large quantity of beets, but try the recipe anyway, there is a good chance you might be surprised.

Soup for 2 people

- 200g parsnips or parsley root
- 150g red beets
- 1 tbsp. Olive oil
- 1 tsp. Rosemary
- 1/2 garlic bulb (do not peel the cloves—the bulb will be baked in the oven)
- 6 dl. vegetable bouillon
- 1 tbsp. Lemon juice
- Salt and pepper

I probably can not avoid posting a small picture of the mentioned cookbook. The authors are Sonja Bock and Tina Scheftelowitz. The book is a collection of recipes that they have published in earlier works—so there is no doubt that they are the best of the best.

About me

My name is Nanna D. Thomsen, I study nutrition and health and have resided in the dorm for about a year. Recently I took over the position as chairman of the garden group.

Furthermore I have a passion for food and raw goods from nature. From this passion comes the idea for this column.

Hope you will enjoy this column.

Peel the parsnips and beets and cut them into smaller pieces. Turn them in oil on a baking sheet with baking paper together with rosemary, salt and pepper.

Rinse the garlic and cut it with one slice through all the cloves. Place the two halves with the cut edge facing down on the baking sheet.

Bake the vegetables in one layer at 175 C in a convection oven for around 45 minutes until they are golden and tender. You can flip them halfway through if you like.

Put the baked vegetables in a pot with bouillon and let it simmer under a lid for around 20 minutes. Blend the soup with a stick blender or a food processor. Add some more bouillon to get the consistency you want. Add lemon juice, salt and pepper to taste.

Serve the soup with bread or different toppings.

Topping with beans, fried rye bread and mozzarella

A handful fresh or defrosted beans are boiled shortly in lightly salted water.

Dice a few slices of rye bread and fry them in chopped garlic and olive oil in a pan. When the bread is crispy, add the beans and let it fry for a moment. Take it off the heat and place a plate on top. Add the mozzarella just before serving.

Topping with parsley and bacon

Many would, if they had the choice, reserve an entire shelf in their refrigerator just for bacon, so this ingredient is difficult for me to disregard in the topping. Fry bacon in a pan, break it into small pieces and mix it with chopped parsley—and mozzarella if you like.

Enjoy

Got something on your mind?

NybroTidende is an important source of information for everyone living at Nybrogård Kollegiet. Besides the standard announcements such as the notices of agenda for the upcoming Residents' Council Meeting, as well as the Summary of the meetings, all residents have the opportunity – free of charge – to contribute with articles and other kinds of material for publication in the gazette. The contribution must contain room number and/or a designation of the relevant authority (secretariat/subletting/bike workshop, etc.). The article must have a certain level of relevance to the dorm. Articles may be sent by e-mail to tidende@nybro.dk with any applicable images attached. NybroTidende is published at the end of every month. The deadline for submitting articles and etc. to NybroTidende is the 20th of the preceding month. Jakob R52, Mikkel R61 and Emma S24 (editors)

Reviews at NybroTidende!

As a new feature at NybroTidende, we will now bring reviews of especially movies, but also fiction in the gazette. No movie or book is too poor to be reviewed, as long as you believe that others may benefit from the review. If you, for instance, think that there's a movie worth seeing, then by all means send a review of it to the editorial staff at NybroTidende. We also accept more "critical" reviews, of course.

There are no specific rules regarding the reviews here at NybroTidende, so there is plenty of room for your own personal style of writing, but it's obviously important to argue properly for your point of view.

Elysium

Neill Blomkamp has yet again created a successful science fiction film. This time by the name of Elysium.

Elysium takes place in the year 2154 where just two classes exist: The extremely wealthy who live in luxury on a space station called Elysium and everyone else who lives on the overpopulated and ruined Earth.

People on the surface are desperate to escape to the space station, to get away from the crime and poverty, and many of them need the care of facilities at the modern hospitals of Elysium. At Elysium, life is quite different and there are many who would do anything to stop the immigration so they can maintain their luxurious lifestyles.

The film plays on the contrasts and it is evident that besides making a film, Neill Blomkamp would also like to get a message across.

In the beginning of the film, we are quickly introduced to a child on Earth named Max. He lives in what seems to be a delapidated monastery with some nuns. Here, we learn how the world works and take a look at the overly luxurious life that is lived in Elysium. In the next scene, the boy is grown and on his way to work. As he trudges along, we see some ships flying overhead. But our protagonist will just be riding a regular bus—and there is a long line to get on it. As he is standing in line, spot checks are being conducted by what look like robots with the text "Policia" on their chest. Their behavior is reminiscent of violent prison guards and it gives the impression that people on the surface are looked upon as nothing more than a resource or pest that has no significance to the people of Elysium.

But the world is not completely without hope, and Max gets the opportunity to do something about it. This plays out in a well constructed plan and staggering action as he attempts to open the gates to Elysium.

As always with Neill Blomkamp, the film is not all about action and science fiction, as it also reflects a reality from our own world. In this case, it is the difference between rich and poor, and that poverty is actually a product of greed and extreme wealth. The poverty is mostly in focus, since we do not get acquainted with the residents of Elysium, beyond seeing how miserable the lives on Earth are.

All in all, the film is beautifully executed with plenty of special effects that outweigh the actors' failed attempts—though they play their parts fine—at making their characters interesting. While the more or less political motives can be overlooked, most will probably notice them and in some cases disagree. This means that Elysium earns 3,5/5 stars.
