Spring has come to Nybrogård

Spring is finally upon us - wonderful! It brings with it both light and heat, bringing more life to the dorm in the months ahead. Right now, several of the dorm's clubs are beginning to stir. Especially the clubs that are mainly outside. As you can read in this month's newsletter, football clubs have just started the season. You can still be a part of the season and join either the men's or the ladies' team. The Canoe Club is another that is beginning to notice the activity rise again. The wonderful weather and the low 20 degrees next week promises, could probably entice a fresh pair of residents to go on their first trip. Are you also going?

Residents' council news

KAB has talked internally about kitchen coffers, they have agreed that they can start managing payment from may.

There is broad agreement, the brew club should continue their brewing in the brewers club room. If the point is taken up again it will be necessary to ask the foremen-tioned kitchen for their position on the matter.

Maja is given DKK 1000 for the renovation of the Art lub's walls.

Tobias requested, and was given the role of observer.

New members and alternates
Lukas J32, is alternate in stead of Alexander J22.

Mads M51 is alternate for LM-odd.

Emil: can you get subsidies for purchase of boxes (TV) -It has been discussed previously, but not adopted. It was proposed that the item can be taken up to the next residents' council meeting.

Get closer to the Kældercafé's Board

The previous issue of NybroTidende had an article on the Kældercafé's general meeting. The bar now has a new board and treasurer. We will take a closer look at the new board members and their plans for the bar's future.

The new board is filled with fresh blood. At the general meeting, February 23rd, all board members, except for the chairman, chose to resign.

This gives rise to the possibility of renewing the bar in different ways and working towards a single focus: getting more people in the bar.

The new board has, so far, only had meetings and many of their initiatives can therefore only be categorised as considerations — Of which there are plenty.

Better and easier for costumers and volunteers

The Board is working to do many things better and easier-both for customers and the volunteers at the bar.

- We have talked about introducing more user-friendly payment methods, such mobile pay, says Vice Kasper.
- We also try to be a little more open about things now, the budget that will be presented at the next Council meeting, for example, says board member Rene.
- Yes will be presented so that people know about the bar they have, continues Jakob.

New volunteers will create more PR

The has been considerations on creating two new committees, which should make it easier for the current committees in the bar while being part of creating more PR for the bar.

- There has been talk about making a design committee, where the idea is that there will be more people to share the tasks and the people do not necessarily otherwise need to be a part of the bar, says chairman James, and continues:
- These are primarily theme party posters and images for our TV in the bar, e.g. slides.
- We have considered making a new PR group, responsible for the task of planning small things every other Friday, such as offers, etc. but it will be something that is resolved over time, says Jakob.

Open to new ideas

The new board is very open to suggestions and ideas, so if you've got something that you think would be cool for the bar, do not hesitate to contact them. Contact the bar on their Facebook page; all you have to do is search for KælderCaféen in the subject field and enter a message to them. If you like the page, you can always follow when there are special offers, theme parties and much more!

If a girl today is so sensible that she takes pessary on before she goes home, she risks her freshly baked worship goes completely jammed at such thoughtfulness-maybe he even disgusted Among other such things that make that about 30,000 Danish women a year become pregnant without being married to the man.

Penis: Also called male member, pee man (see naughty words) and many other words. It is along with anus-that which an adult male may not show on a beach We know that among other things the ancient Greeks worshiped the penis (see Phallus) and made amulets for children and baked cookies in penis shape. That is a completely different acceptance of this body than that which we know. Among men in our society are also a kind of penis pride; and in some women a more or less proven penis envy-penisjealousy to say it is one negative form of worship. And thanks to the penis hidden, especially when erect state, many women start quite unfamiliar with the phenomenon and somewhat frightened because the erect penis does not look like it, you look at the statues in the parks or in young boys who are paddling on the beach.

Diaphragm: Is a rubber bowl that can be put up in the vagina (see genitals, kvdl. Spring is coming and summer is within reach. The dorm has many different clubs. While some clubs have the most activity in the winter others are active during summer.

We awake your memory from winter hibernation and remind you of all the good club facilities and activities you can be a part of.

(Find All chairman names on page 2, or read more on the website e.g. about how to join).

Bee Club:

Started 2014. The purpose of the club is to give residents interested in beekeeping the opportunity to be with like-minded people and learn about how to keep bees.

This means that the dorm has its own honey, sold several times a year!

Canoe Club

The dorm currently has 2 travel kayaks, 4 sea kayaks and 6-8 canoes that you can borrow if you are a member.

In fact, the club for is going to need a new chairman, spring 2016. With this position, you will be chairman of the dormitory canoe club and be responsible for adding of members, intro courses, repairs and other actions or events that you might want to happen. So keep yourself updated on when the position will be free, or contact the current president.

Why do we lie on the first of April?

Calendar Change gave rise to the April Fools.

The French New Year was, in 1564, moved from April 1st to January 1st. Everyone who had forgotten the change and therefore nevertheless gave New Year greetings on April 1, were subjected to mockery and teasing - or April Fools.

The whole confusion about the date of the New Year was because most European countries celebrated the feast on dates other than January 1st. Most European countries followed the Julian calendar where the new year begins on January 1st. Nevertheless, New years was, in many countries, celebrated on Dec. 25th, while some celebrated on March 25th on the day of Jesus' resurrection.

April Fools originates in France

The French celebrated the New Year on spring solstice, April 1st, but in 1564, Karl 9. decided on moving New Year's Day from April 1st to January 1st. In France it was a tradition to visit each other and give gifts on New Year's Day. Those who still showed up with gifts on April 1 were therefore exposed to mockery and teasing. It quickly became a new tradition to come visit on April 1st with hate gifts and pretend you did not know that New Year's Eve had been moved.

Agenda:

1. Moderator and language for the meeting
Tobias, Danish.

2. Voting members
11

3. Approval of minutes from last residents' meeting

4. Approval of agenda
Approved

5. Economy

Jakob has not been given the status of what's on the two accounts by Alexander, but has given some money to active party and in addition there are given some money to the music room.

In relation to the bank's requirements for signatures of all residents' committee members, there some names that do not apply. In addition, Jacob still needs some signatures, making the list unready to be passed on to the bank. Jakob Jensen will obtain signatures on those and send the rest to Tobias.

7. Review of last board meeting or agenda.

KAB has talked internally about kitchen coffers, they have agreed that they can start managing payment from may.

This requires that a monthly amount for all kitchens is agreed upon, since the amount should be the same for all kitchens. In addition, KAB wants DKK 2000 for creating this.

In order to make the system work, it will be required to make some procedure for how the kitchen manager will get it to work.

It is decided that the item be taken up on the next residents' meeting.

8. Inward Correspondence

New chairman for music club (I)

Astrid Elme Breum M42

The Music Club would like to inform that the chairmanship is transferred from Astrid Elme Breum to Andreas Willumsen.

Andreas is the new chairman of the Music Club.

Oven Plug (V)

Troels Lunde Hagensen L28

I would like to draw power from a 16A group in my kitchen.

What I seek is permission to pay an electrician to install a 5 pole switch up between the oven and output, instead of the output going directly into the oven without using a switch. We are two in the hallway who prefer to brew in our kitchen, I would like to continue (it's so lonely in the basement). The chance that other contacts are usable is minimal. Therefore, the location and hence my expense.

Troels (Brewers Club Chairman)

Troels has not turned up, so the point withdraws.

It is questioned, what Lars Kaj's position is (caretaker)
He believes that the brewing process should not take place in the kitchen, but in the local brewers club that has been allocated.
Jacob, it quickly becomes a matter of principle in relation to individual people who can change things if they pay for it.

There is broad agreement, the brew club should continue their brewing in the brewers club room. If the point is taken up again it will be necessary to ask the aforementioned kitchen for their position on the matter.

Renovation of walls in art club (V)

Maja Scheel Klint J16

Art Club seeks DKK 1000-1200 renovation of the walls

Lars Kaj offers paint available for DKK 350 per bucket.

The vote on Maja getting DKK 1,000 and subsequent agreements details be made with Lars Kaj

For: 10 Against: 1 Abstained: 0

Maja is given DKK 1,000 for renovation of the Art Club's walls.

Money for the Gardening Club(V)

Lea Reime L02

In the summer, the gardening group bought a lot of new things to the gardens. We still have a bill of DKK 189 from Harald Nyborg, which we very much would like to have covered (attached).

We would like to apply for an allowance of DKK 2000 which can be used for new tools and improvements to the gardens throughout 2016

Is this possible?

It is possible that she can get the money. She has not shown, so the point is ignored. Tobias will contact her for more details. Niels T54 enters

Severance of the observer (I)

Ea Bandholtz D63

I will resign from my post as an observer in the Kældercafé's board. I urge the residents' council to select a new observer.

Observer's main task is to keep an eye on whether the rules of the bar are being respected.

Observers must not be linked to the bar e.g. member of the committees or bartender. Observers shall participate in residents' council and board meetings and KælderCafé meetings.

There should be an observer from the residents' council (according to KælderCafé Statutes)

Tobias takes the role, and is thus selected Tobias is the new observer

New members and alternates

Lukas J32, is alternate in stead of Alexander J22.

Mads M51 is alternate for LM-odd.

10. Other

Jacob, is it possible for some rules to be written for when disposable amounts can be paid? Ea believes that this has been discussed before and should be in the minutes. This will be reviewed at the next meeting. Rasmus: On behalf of the Network Group, it is asked that the residents' list in Nybro-Tidende be updated. Lea (Secretary) will make sure it's updated and subsequently send the list to Jacob.

Lukas: would like to be the new chairman of the Cinema Club. Tobias resigns as temporary chairman.

Rasmus: The Complaints department had asked to move the Residents' Council meeting so that it isn't interfering with various offices' opening hours.

It would be good to switch between the different days so that everyone would have the opportunity to attend one day or the other.

conclusion: it will be looked in to whether it is possible to make Thursday a meeting day. 7pm remains the permanent meeting time.

Emil: Antenna: National Geographic and Discovery channels do not work.

Antenna responsible: They are in the process of negotiating whether they can get them back.

Jacob will talk to Lars Kaj about how it should work in the future

Emil: can you get subsidies for purchase of boxes (TV) -

It has been discussed previously, but not adopted. It was proposed that the item can be taken up to the next residents' council meeting.

New chairman of the Gardening club (I) Rasmus Zimling Kristensen A38

The Gardening club wants to inform the residents' council that the chair of the Gardening club, unanimously, was released from Lea Reime L02 and given to Rasmus Simling Kristensen A38. This occurred at a meeting, 29/2.

Allowance for the Gardening club (V) Rasmus Simling Kristensen A38

Last year, the Gardening club purchased new tools for the gardens. This resulted in a bill of DKK 189 from Harald Nyborg (dated 10 / 4-15), which we very much would like to have covered (attached). We would also like to apply for an allowance of DKK 2000 which can be used for new tools and improvements to the gardens in 2016 (we are, among other things, starting to mark the gardens better with marker poles). We are therefor requesting DKK 2,189.

New canoe and kayak club president (I)

Michael Folkmann K43

Since I no longer have time to take care of the role of chairman of the canoe club I've chosen to retire. A new chairman will be needed.

Improving the shared kitchens (D) Benjamin Haubye B51

See Appendix

Kitchen coffer payment through rent Rasmus Lau, the Board of Directors.

From May 1st, the plan is that kitchen coffer charges will be demanded simultaneously with the rent. The amount needs to be decided since it must be the same across all kitchens. The meeting in February indicated that the amounts are currently about DKK 20-40 per resident. The kitchens are asked to find out what the preferred amount would be and what the minimum amount needed to cover their expenses is.

New treasurer(I)

Jacob Rahr Bork Jensen S06

I withdraw from my position as NYK 's treasurer, a new treasurer is needed.

I have access to the payment system, but not the accounts. All the papers I have acquired for accessing the accounts can still be used by a new treasurer.

The Kældercafé's budget for 2016 (I) Jacob Rahr Bork Jensen S06, Bar chairman

We have made a very pessimistic budget for 2016, the result of which appears to have been very negatively. We share this in order to play with an open hand. Comparing the budget with the results of the first quarter, things are going much better economically than what the budget indicates. We will adjust the prices in April and focus on going forward with raising the revenue at each opening. In addition, we welcome your suggestions and ideas. See Appendix.

Exchange Student in Spain

Not always the perfect experience

Being an exchange student is not always a completely positive experience. Stephanie from PR-even had a different experience, one that, in spite of everything, she would not want to be without.

- When you talk to other students who have been on exchange, the stories you'll here are most likely the ultra-positive, pink soft ice-reports, however, this is not always the case. It really is what you make it, says Stephanie who was on exchange in Spain last semester. Stephanie had a wide range of expectations before she left and those expectations were not met, which gave food for thought. - If you have some expectations that are not met, one can make the decision of taking up the challenge or you can fall back to your comfort zone again. Ultimately it is about being able to see yourself in the mirror and think: I did what I could, and the is all I can do, she says. Stephanie chose to keep fighting and took up the challenge of doing something about the greatest challenges.

Language barrier

For Stephanie, it was especially the language barrier that created major challenges. In the city she lived in, they could not speak English and it made it hard both academically and socially.

- The language barrier was so great that I was surprised, and I even tried to follow it up by going there one month before my studies and go to a language school.

Language training was not quite enough, and the challenge of the Spanish speaking people made it harder for Stephanie to form social relationships.

- It was hard to communicate and more deep conversations only occurred quite late in my stay as it then that I found out that I had better follow up on the things I was not so good at, such as the language, and taking a lot of initiative to meet them, but it was definitely a challenge both at the professional level and the social she says.

For starters, Stephanie formed the best relations with other international students because they were in the same situation, and underwent the same processes.

- We came from the same starting point, so I got a great deal out of going through things with them, and so I also got local friends over time says Stephanie.

Rabbit in Paella

Despite the major challenges that Stephanie underwent, she also had a lot of fun experiences in Spain.

Stephanie mentions, for example, when she found out that she had eaten rabbit:

- It's great fun to eat rabbit paella and only find out afterwards, says Stephanie with irony in her voice, adding: "I actually got it quite uncomfortable. Such a sweet little thing"

Colours of Holi Festival

Stephanie remembers a fun adventure in Barcelona, where they drank a too much:

It's the sangrias country, and oh god how it tastes good. I could not stay away from it, and everything's cheap, so you simply exploit it all, she says and continues:

- We were at a festival called Holi Festival in Barcelona. It is reminiscent of colourrun. The running part is not. You throw colours at each other, listen to music and drink. And sure did drink and colour a lot of people. It was funny as shit.

Great personal development

Both the funny experiences and the major challenges has meant that Stephanie feels she has learned a lot about herself.

I'm very independent and I could do it all, but then I found out that it was really hard to do on your own. I need people I trust around me, she says and continues:

I have never ever been so much outside my comfort zone in so many areas, both academically and socially, and geographically, so it surprised me a lot. you are not quite aware of your comfort zone, but it is in fact probably at those times that you learn the most, both about yourself and other people and one's whole existence.

Remember to access your expectations

NybroTidende also asked Stephanie if she had any advice for others who are thinking about studying abroad:

- I definitely think that you should do research on why you want to go, whether it's for personal reasons, for the experience, etc. Do some research on the country's culture and what norms you need to adjust to. Then make an assessment of your expectations before you go, while there, and going home. It sounds very Ruc-like, but I am from Ruc, says Stephanie while laughing out loud.

I would do it again

When Stephanie is asked the question, if she would do it again, there is no hesitation:

- Yes. I would certainly do it again. Even though I have undergone some challenges that I never thought I would face, I have learned a lot about myself she says and continues:

- I think you have to go. It was a great experience that I would recommend.

Stephanie was somewhat surprised when he found out that there was rabbit in the delicious paella. Louise P-20

F. C. Nybro starter sæsonen

Spring has finally come to Denmark, and that means, as usual, that the dorm's football team has again come to life.

The dorm's men's team, F. C. Nybro, has been looking forward to an exciting new season with a new leadership in the guise of a new coach who is in charge of the team. This person is Casper Emil Christiansen from EF-odd. His thoughts on the upcoming seasons are:

"Our first training match showed - despite zero training - a promising potential. I really hope that this year may be the year where we advance. In addition, I took the role as the team leader, and hope that people will show support and join us at training / matches no matter their skill or experience "- Casper Emil Christensen

After last year's season, the team is once again joining the men's second division (see kollegiefodbold.dk). The team is expecting fierce opposition in the promotional rounds. Among the competitors is the dorm's eternal rival, P. O. Pedersen, which were hoping to defeat in all matches this year.

Do you want to join us? Do not hold back! The team offers all players a welcome, experienced or not. All you have to do is show up for a training session and you're in. Check any team's Facebook group for more info. You can find it by searching for "F.C. Nybro".

De bedste aprilsnarre

April 1st is a day where fools are made. The media are doing it, we are doing it to each other—in other words, everyone is trying to make others look like fools. NybroTidende has found some of the better April fools pranks/jokes etc. that have been seen or heard at the dorm.

Katja, PR-even

When I was in high school, there was one from the class who had messaged everyone that English classes were cancelled and therefore we should meet at 10. Only half of the class met at 8am that day, those who met either did not see the message or did not receive it. The teacher wondered why there was almost were no students, and soon found out that someone had made an April Fools prank on the whole class.

The teacher was not very happy with the situation, but continued teaching. While we sat and did tasks, the teacher said that he who had sent the messages had to go to the headmaster, he would like to talk to him. The person who did it became extremely pale, got up and went to the headmaster.

The whole class cracked up and waited anxiously for his return.

When he came back he told me that he got to the headmaster who proceeded to ask him what he was doing, and said that it was not very smart. The guy said that it was just a joke and the headmaster then said: "And so is this" The teacher had made the headmaster make a fool of he who had made done it to the whole class.

PR-Block becomes elder homes

NybroTidende is also able to join in on the fun. In the April issue of 2014, it was written that NybroTidende had learned that the entire PR-block would be converted into homes for the elderly and that the dorm would be invaded by rollators, handicap parking and home care before the end of 2015. The article had a letter to KAB from the City of Gladsaxe attached in which they had been instructed to increase housing available for the elderly, located in nature rich areas which the PR-block would provide.

Lars Kaj had supposedly been sought in connection with the article. Regarding the news of elderly coming to Nybrogård he had, according to the article, muttered: "It would be great to have some peers".

The article even referred to a Facebook page called "Stop the elderly at Nybrogård".

I wonder how many people, just out of sheer fear of seeing older people shake it in the KælderCafé, chose to search for the Facebook group.

NybroTidende's food column:

Seasonal foods

After Easter you risk having a lot of leftovers in the refrigerator. This is where egg-cake is fantastic because you can add almost all ingredients.

Omelette with garlic baked tomatoes

ingredients

- 8 eggs
- 7 medium potatoes
- 250 grams of mushrooms
- 1 leek
- 2 tbsp. Wheat flour
- 1.5 dl. Milk
- Salt
- Pepper
- Cayenne pepper
- Tomatoes
- Garlic
- And bacon if wanted.

Procedure

Boil the potatoes in a pot with plenty of water. The potatoes should not be cooked completely. Clean and slice mushrooms and the leek. When the potatoes are cooked, cut them into small pieces and fry in a pan with a little butter. Mushrooms and leek pieces are put in the pan and fry along with the potatoes.

Cut the tomato in half, and garlic cloves into slices. Put the tomatoes in a ovenproof dish and put garlic pieces into the half tomatoes. The tomatoes can also be cut into quarters where the garlic can be sprinkled on. It is possible to add a little balsamic vinegar over the tomatoes. Set the dish in a 200C oven for 30-40 minutes or until the tomatoes are soft.

Beat the eggs with the flour, milk, salt and pepper. Pour the egg mixture over the mix of potatoes, leeks and mushrooms and place the dish in a 200C oven until egg the mixture is completely firm and has got a golden colour. put a fork (or similar) in the cake. If there is no liquid egg mass of the fork, the egg cake ready to serve.

Fry the bacon in the pan or in the oven until crisp. Toast some rye bread if wanted and serve the omelette with bacon and garlic baked tomatoes.

TIP!

The omelettes are that kind of versatile dish, where you can put almost everything in. For example, replace leeks and mushrooms with onions and ham, or add tomatoes into the egg cake rather than as accessories. On the Internet you can find thousands of ideas for how to make an omelette, or you can add to it whatever you feel like and make your own special omelette. It is only your imagination (and your taste buds) that is the limit!

Allegiant

Back in 2011, the book Divergent was published by the author Veronica Roth. In the following two years, the 2nd and then the 3rd book in the trilogy were published. In the year 2014, the first film of the series appeared on screen with the same name as the books. As was the case with the books, the next film appeared in 2015 and the 3rd will appear in 2016-or at least the first part. As was the case with the film series such as Harry Potter and The Hunger Games, they've decided to split the last and final part of the story in two parts.

The films have mixed reception. Personally, however, I very much like them after having watch the first movie where it totally caught my attention. After being slightly disappointed with the 2nd film I must say that the latest film in the series has taken revenge its revenge! Allegiant is a very, very exciting movie, even if it does not win any price for surprising film plot or the like.

Allegiant starts where Insurgent (The second film) left off. The "evil" Jeanine, the leader of Erudite-faction (the intelligent) is dead and Tris Prior has finally won the power in Chicago. Together with a group of other leaders, she is now responsible for Chicago's future. Tris is anything but hooked on the task. After hearing about a life outside the walls. Tris is now determined to investigating this, which does not go well with the others. As always, Tris does not just stand by and watch, so instead she follows her heart. Escape from Chicago takes her over the wall where the mystique and the big world awaits. Just when all hope seems to be lost, luck turns and the group of refugees are rescued at the finish line. Or are they?
